St. Francis' Convent Alumnae

The Alumni Association of St. Francis Convent Inter College, Jhansi envisions a dynamic and enduring community that reconnects hearts across generations. It aims to create fresh connections while rekindling the warmth of long-cherished relationships among our valued former students. We warmly invite all who once walked these corridors to reconnect with their alma mater—returning not just to remember the past, but to celebrate it. This is a space to revisit shared journeys, relive meaningful moments, create new memories, and take pride in a common legacy as alumnae of a time-honoured institution.

Objectives

1. To strengthen bonds of friendship among alumnae and renew their lasting connection with the school.
2. To collaboratively promote the values of integrity, morality, compassion, service, and human dignity nurtured during the school years.
3. To function as a socially responsible organization through active engagement in intellectual, cultural, and philanthropic initiatives.
4. To inspire present students to uphold the ideals of St. Francis' Convent, enabling them to become responsible citizens and future members of the Alumnae Association.

Features

1. Organization of an annual alumnae meet to encourage reconnection and strengthen a sense of belonging.
2. Assistance to batches wishing to celebrate significant milestones such as silver or golden jubilees.
3. Facilitation of alumnae contributions for publication in the annual school magazine.
4. Career guidance sessions for students of Classes X and XII conducted by experienced alumnae.
5. Educational seminars for parents led by alumnae professionals.
6. Participation in social outreach programs including medical camps, literacy initiatives, and environmental drives.
7. Creation and regular updating of a comprehensive alumnae database.
8. Access to school premises beyond school hours for alumnae holding valid Association-issued identity cards.
9. Encouragement of dialogue and innovation to further the objectives of the Association.
